

Seminar on the EU Emissions Trading Directive

The seminar deals with key issues under the EU-ETS:

- monitoring & reporting
- verification
- information exchange
- JI and CDM
- inspection & enforcement

Governments' morning program, November 7th

10:00 Registration for Governments

10:30 Welcome address

- Wim Maaskant, BGP Engineers, Head of project group
- Competent Authority of Czech Republic and Slovakia, current status of EU Legislation, recent developments and priorities for 2005

10:45 Registries, EU Allowances and Emission trading

- Hans Warmenhoven, BGP Engineers/SPIN: Status update on the registries. Principles and implementation in Czech Republic and Slovakia. Market developments, Prices of ERUs, CERs and EAUs.

11:30 Regulatory Cycle and EU-ETS

- Imre Csikos, Mobilisation for the Environment: How does the EU-ETS relate to environmental inspection? The regulatory cycle: policy making , permitting, inspection, enforcement. What are the challenges for Governments? The IPPC Directive

12:15 Lunch

13:15 Manual 4: JI & CDM

- Wim Maaskant, BGP Engineers: The Linking Directive: how can emissions reduction units (ERUs, CERs) be linked to the ETS? Principles of flexible mechanism: Joint Implementation and Clean Development Mechanism, Market developments, Prices of ERUs, CERs and EAUs.

14:15 Questions & Answers

Questions & Answers ends on 14.30. Governments may participate the afternoon program, which start after the coffee break,

Verifiers and Operators afternoon program , November 7th

14.30 Registration for Verifiers

15:00 Manual 1: Monitoring & Reporting

- Günter Schock, TUV Rheinland: Principles of monitoring/reporting Process flows, energy consumption, emissions, monitoring techniques, reporting. Costs of monitoring and verification.

15:45 Manual 2: Verification

- Günter Schock, TUV Rheinland: Principles of Verification, Process of verification, Verification criteria, Validation reporting & opinion.

16:30 Manual 3: Accreditation

- Günter Schock, TUV Rheinland: Introduction Accreditation, Accreditation criteria, Process of accreditation, Accreditation results.

17.00 Questions & Answers, Networking,

17.30 END program

Operators' Day, November 8th

09:30 Registration for Operators

10:00 Welcome address

- Wim Maaskant, BGP Engineers, Head of project group
- Competent Authority of Czech Republic and Slovakia, current status of EU Legislation, recent developments and priorities for 2005

10:20 Registries, EU Allowances and Emission trading

- Hans Warmenhoven, BGP Engineers/SPIN: Status update on the registries. Principles and implementation in Czech Republic and Slovakia. Market developments. Emission prices.

11:00 Regulatory Cycle and EU-ETS

- Imre Csikos, Mobilisation for the Environment: How does the EU-ETS relate to environmental inspection? The regulatory cycle: policy making , permitting, inspection, enforcement. What are the challenges for Governments? The IPPC Directive

11:45 ETS: status update, bottle necks & challenges

Short introduction by experts. Panel Discussion with the audience about the ETS. Questions & Answers

12:00 Lunch

13:00 Manual 1: Monitoring & Reporting

- Günter Schock, TUV Rheinland: Principles of monitoring/reporting Process flows, energy consumption, emissions, monitoring techniques, reporting. Costs of monitoring and verification.

13:45 Manual 2 & 3: Verification & Accreditation

- Günter Schock, TUV Rheinland: Principles of verification and accreditation.

14:15 Coffee break Lunch

14:45 Manual 4: JI & CDM

- Wim Maaskant, BGP Engineers: The linking Directive: how can emissions reduction units (ERUs, CERs) be linked to the ETS? Principles of flexible mechanism: Joint Implementation and Clean Development Mechanism, Market developments, Prices of ERUs, CERs and EAUs.

15:45 Questions & Answers, Networking

16.30 END program

For further information contact:

Maurice Prudon
BGP Engineers B.V.
e-mail: EUETS@BGP.nl
Phone : +31 413 243800