

Actual trade in allowances

Main issues for companies

October 2005

Hans Warmenhoven

Contents

- How to trade in practice
- Which service providers are there
- What determines the prices for allowances
- How to organize trade internally
- What goes wrong

How to trade in practice, the registry

- Run by the national registry authority;
- enables participants to execute transactions throughout Europe;
- Operator holding accounts (OHA) for all plants;
- Personal holding accounts (PHA) for everyone that wants one.

How to trade in practice, what is your position

Current year

Future year

Sell buy allowances

How to trade in practice, the transaction

- Spot contract
- Bilateral forward contract
- Cleared forward contract

- Several contract formats ISDA, IETA and EFET.

- OTC (over the counter) trades between companies
- Trade through intermediaries

Which service providers are there

- Exchanges;
  - European Climate exchange, Netherlands
  - Nordpool, Norway;
  - Powernext, England;
  - EEX, Germany;
  - EXAA, Austria.
- Banks
- Trade platforms
- Brokers

Which service providers are there

- Brokers
  - EVOmarkets
  - CO2e.COM
  - Natsource

What determines the prices for allowances

What determines the prices for allowances

- National allocation plans
- Link to Kyoto mechanism JI and CDM
- The AAU market
- The weather, temperature and precipitation
- Fuel prices

How to organize trade internally

The compliance period

- Emission reports have to be verified before March 31st.
- The surrendering of an amount of allowances before April 30th.

Preparation of procedures for this period is essential